

BLACK TELLS HOW IT ALL HAPPENED

Gives His Version of Democratic Disaster In State—Morrow's Majority Grows.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—Reports from nine of the missing counties increased the majority of Edwin P. Morrow, republican, over Jas. D. Black, democrat, in the race for Governor, to 29,992. The missing counties, Wolfe, in the Ninth, gave Stanley a majority of 240 over Morrow four years ago, but friends of the latter assert that Mr. Morrow carried Wolfe county Tuesday.

Unofficial returns received at Republican State headquarters give Mr. Morrow a majority of 40,000.

The nine counties heard from yesterday gave the following majorities:

Callatin 533 for Black; Pendleton 533 for Black; Powell, 9 for Black; Elliott, 531 for Black; Clay, 500 for Morrow; Harlan, 2,500 for Morrow; Leslie, 1,431 for Morrow; McCreary, 1,500 for Morrow; Whitley, 3,000 for Morrow.

Gov. Black issued a statement in which he blamed the liquor interests, pro-Germans, the "Armstrong mystery," his failure to remove certain appointees of Gov. Stanley and the President for his defeat. Regarding the latter, he said that whether the action of President Wilson in writing his coal strike letter was proper or improper, it hurt his candidacy.

His statement follows:

To the People of Kentucky:

The result of the election Tuesday is not a surprise to me. There are a few of whom I, at different times during the last few weeks, gave in confidence, expression of my apprehension. But I wish all to know I make no complaint.

The chief regret I have in being denied election to the governorship, is that I am deprived of the opportunity to set on foot and carry out a program which would have set Kentucky forward toward a high achievement. Such a program I had carefully and deliberately formed in my own mind, and to its accomplishment, I intended to devote the best powers of my being.

The result of the election is due to a large measure, as I see the situation, to these:

First—The wet centers of the state voted against me because I am, and have been opposed to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes. The saloon keeper and his patron were against me because of my well known position on that question.

Second—The pro-German was against me because of his hatred of the President and his opposition to the President's policies, while I am and had been a sincere advocate of said policies. My advocacy of said policies impelled me to espouse the effort to ratify the peace treaty and League of Nations. I, therefore, did not hesitate to announce my position on that matter.

Third—There has been a widespread belief that I, on assuming the duties of the governorship last May, that I should have removed from office some of the appointees of Governor Stanley. Many of my friends even clamored for such action.

But, as to that, I am at rest with my conscience, for I would not violate either the law of my state or my oath of office. Under the law I had no right to remove any one except only for legal cause and that cause must be shown by provable evidence. I have tried my best during the campaign to make that plain to the people of the state. I could not see my way clear to act otherwise than I have acted. Had I otherwise acted I would have lost some of my own self-respect and my friends, who might have carefully considered the matter from a legal standpoint, would have lost more or less of their confidence of my integrity and the rectitude of my conduct.

Fourth—The Armstrong affair came on the eve of the election to do me an injury unjustly.

Then the action of the President with reference to the coal miners' strike, whether that action was proper or improper, and the efforts of some individuals unfriendly to me, to cause the striking miners to believe I was their enemy, resulted in causing thousands to vote against me. These efforts were made too soon before the election to allow time for me to remove the unjust and unfair imputation.

Summing up the whole situation briefly, it may be said that almost every voter who imagined he had been wronged by some action of the federal or state government, charged the wrong to the Democratic party, and the Democratic ticket became the sufferer.

Finally, let me say, I am not an enemy of any laboring man or woman, or any person engaged in any legitimate enterprise.

If I have enemies, they may rejoice over the result of the election. But to my friends I would give assurance that I appreciate their effort in my behalf beyond by power to express myself.

Governor-elect Morrow will take office at noon December 9 the state constitution providing that newly elected Governors shall be seated on the fifth Tuesday after the election. The other newly elected state officials will take office at noon on the first Monday in January. The General Assembly with its newly elected members, will be convened on the first Tuesday after the Monday in January.

OFFICIAL COUNT TO BE MADE FRIDAY

Board To Canvass Returns From Madison County Election—Campaign Expenses

The County Board of Election Commissioners, composed of Judge E. C. Million, republican, C. B. Terrill, democrat, and Sheriff Pete Whitlock, will meet Friday to make official canvass of the vote cast in Madison county in the recent election. The ballot book stubs have been turned over to the commission, and it will not require long to make the official count.

The two local campaign committees are required to file sworn statements of their receipts and expenditures for campaign purposes within 30 days after the election. Both campaign chairmen and both candidates for the legislature filed statements within 15 days of the election, of the amounts they had received expended up to that time.

Campaign Chairman J. P. Chenault, of the Democratic Committee, reported that up to October 24th, he had received and disbursed nothing.

Campaign Chairman W. H. Burgess, and Secretary Robert R. Burnam, Jr., of the Republican Committee, reported that they had spent $29 for workers for registration; $30 for livery hire, and $15 for printing, a total of $74.

Tom Collins, Democratic candidate for the legislature, reported that he had spent $20 for traveling expenses and $17.80 for advertising, a total of $37.80 up to October 23, and Leonard Ballard, Republican candidate for the legislature, reported expenditure of $15 for advertising and $13 for traveling expenses, up to October 21st; a total of $28.

Can't Recover Ransom Money

(By Associated Press)

OHIO'S DRY VOTE NOW DOUBTFUL

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, Nov. 6.—Late returns from Tuesday's election in Ohio seemed to shatter the prediction the drys had carried the four prohibition proposals which first reports said had won by 75,000. Unofficial returns from 59 counties showed large wet majorities.

State dry headquarters today admitted the probable defeat of the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bill. They said the vote is very close on ratification but insisted repeal of statewide prohibition and the two and three-fourths per cent beer amendment have been defeated.

ALLEN ZARING BUYS WEST MAIN PROPERTY

Allen Zaring has bought the residence on West Main street occupied by Mrs. J. C. Bronston and family, from Mrs. H. B. Hanger. The price was not made public, but is it understood to have been in line with other property sold in that section recently. It is understood that Mr. Zaring will erect a handsome brick residence on the lot after he has razed the present two-story structure. The lot is a deep one and the location very desirable in every way. It is said that Mr. Zaring will not start construction of his new home till spring.

WILSON TO TELL VIEWS ON RESERVATIONS

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 6.—Senator Gore's peace treaty amendment to make an advisory popular vote mandatory before any declaration of war under the League of Nations, was rejected today by the Senate. A White House statement today said President Wilson will receive Administration Leader Hitchcock within a day or two to impart the President's views on reservations to the treaty. Hitchcock plans to lay the entire treaty situation before the President and tell him what reservations are likely to receive support in the Senate. The President in turn will say what reservations will be acceptable to him.

"About three years ago, I was all run down in health, weighed only 104 lbs., and getting worse every day. I began the use of DR. THACHER'S LIVER AND BLOOD SYRUP, and today I am thankful to say that I'm in perfect health, and weigh 175 lbs., and attribute my good health to the use of that most wonderful medicine—DR. THACHER'S LIVER AND BLOOD SYRUP. My husband joins me in recommending this great tonic—Mrs. C. E. Chadwick, Ala.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health. . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

A man's best pal is his smoke

"Knotty problem? Let me help"

—Ches. Field

"HELP" is right! A smooth, mellow smoke is just the thing, when you're up against a tough one. And Chesterfield is that smoke.

An expert and exclusive blend is responsible—finest, silkiest Turkish tobaccos from Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samsoun, and the best varieties of Domestic leaf—put together by the manufacturer's private formula that brings out every last bit of flavor. No other process, no other blend, can successfully imitate Chesterfield's smoothness and full-bodied flavor.

No argument here! Chesterfields satisfy as no other cigarette has ever satisfied before.

OF

188 1/2 Acres Bluegrass Land

November 11, 1919

AT 10 A. M.

This is a dissolution sale of the old Raymond Shearer farm now belonging to James and John W. Shearer. This land is all in grass and has been for a number of years. It is located 10 miles north of Richmond, 1 mile from Brookstown school house. It is well watered and well fenced and has a good six room old fashion house, and good barn and all other out buildings. Has lots of good oak timber and a number of good cedar and locust posts. Lots of this land has never been plowed and is the best of tobacco land, and as good grazing as any farm in this county. It is just 1 mile from church and same distance from school and is only 1-4 mile from pike.

TWO SCHOOL TEACHERS KILLED BY TRAIN

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Nov. 6—Misses Lena Shennum Canby, of Minnesota, and Maude Finsel, of Frankfort, Ky., school teachers, were run down and killed by a Louisville Henderson and St. Louis passenger train at Medora, 15 miles from here, today. They stepped from the track to avoid a freight train into the path of an oncoming passenger train.

COAL PRODUCTION IS ON INCREASE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 6—Information in the hands of government officials in touch with the strike situation today indicated an increase in coal production especially in West Virginia, where 31 union mines are said to be in operation. Officials are unable to say whether breaks in the union ranks are increasing to any great extent, but they read with interest reports that indicated apparent defections in Oklahoma, Colorado and New Mexico.

Hits Modern Styles Hard

(By Associated Press)
Atlantic City, Nov. 6—Present day clothing styles worn by some church women were censured today at the National Training Conference of inter-church world movement of North America. "In public these days," said Rev. J. R. Crowther, of Seattle, "you can scarcely tell the difference between a street woman and a church woman." The whip-poor-will builds no nest, but deposits its eggs on the ground.
